

National Dental Technology Association Survey 2023

		Yes		No
1.	Do you feel a national association will benefit the industry of Dental Technology and RDTs
		Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree
2.	A national suggested Fee Guide is beneficial to all RDTs across Canada
3.	RDTs need a voice at the table on a national level, to represent the profession of Dental Technology, like other regulated health care professions
4.	All provinces should support a national Association of Dental Technology to represent RDTs across Canada in national meetings regarding the profession
5.	Changes in the progression of Dental Technology profession should remain in the voice of RDTs
6.	All dental prostheses created must be supervised by an RDT or a dentist

Are you an RDT Yes No If yes, which province _____

Email address for future communications _____